The Goettelmanns

"Thank You
Reception" following the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Goettelmann are prominent residents of Haddonfield with great expertise in architecture, landscaping and antiques. They will share their personal visits to these locations over the past several years with an illustrated presentation.

Do join us for another delightful evening with the Goettelmanns!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to the Auction Committee for the very successful day. Helen Streeter and Betts Bartlett did a great job and the publicity was terrific. It was a pleasure to see so many new faces. Thanks to everyone who participated.

Mrs. Edna Haydock and Mr. Jesse Haydock, Jr. tell me we will be having the second printing of "This is Haddonfield" available soon. They along with Kathy Tassini and many others, have worked hard over the past year to make this possible. Pat Lennon is handling marketing and publicity. I'm sure she could use some help so please call her.

Thank you to everyone who helped with the reception October 21 and special thanks to Caroline Moody for organizing it.

It is hard to find a way to thank all those who have worked so hard these past two years. I would like to list every name and thank each of you personally, but I'm sure if I tried, I would miss someone. Instead, you are all invited to a "Thank You" reception after our Annual Meeting November 15, 8 p.m. at Borough Hall. You are appreciated and you deserve to be so honored. Please come.

These past two years have been interesting and exciting. We can all be proud of our many accomplishments. I have enjoyed being your president and hope that those who follow will find the same pleasure and feeling of satisfaction.

Fondly,
Debbie Moore

WOMEN'S COMMITTEE

Our Annual Auction took place on Saturday, October 6. Chilly weather did not deter the folks who flocked to the garage at Greenfield Hall. Under the capable chairmanship of Helen Streeter and Betsy Bartlett, everything ran smoothly and on time. As usual, Bill Reynold's auctioneering was brisk, bright and persuasive. Dot Sherred and Ruby Oberst ticked off the items and made change. Emma Martin and Marjorie Freedley wrapped the purchases effectively. Mary Previty did the excellent publicity and Dot Sherred did the Banner displayed on the fence. Peg Aldrich and Helen Streeter kept their eyes on the items to be auctioned. Katie Walter and Ruth were the runners. After 2:00 p.m., the receipts amounted to $2350. The Mervine's coffee and hot dog concession contributed $57.00 to the total. Congratulations to all!

The Women's Committee shared in the activities of Haddonfield's Festival Day on Saturday, October 27, by serving Tea to visitors at Greenfield Hall.

The women are working in the Hip Roof House crafting articles for the -- CHRISTMAS CRAFT SHOP. Why don't you join us?

Plan to come to the November 27 regular meeting.

Mrs. John J. Slaven
Chairman

Greenfield Hall has been thoroughly house cleaned. Following Board approval, a Wedding has been scheduled in Greenfield Hall on Christmas Eve. How romantic.

House Chairman

EVENING GROUP

The Evening Group of The Women's Committee had a good start this year. The September meeting featured Gail Grisse talking about the history and art of Stenciling. In October, Dinny Traver spoke about Doll Houses.

Debbie Moore is providing us with an additional treat. She will teach us how to make Cabbage Patch Doll Clothes. The dates are: November 6 and 13, both Tuesdays, at 10 a.m., and November 7 and 14, both Wednesdays, at 7:30 p.m. We will meet in the Mickle House to make these hot selling items for the Bazaar.

The regular fourth Wednesday meeting is November 28. Plan to join us at Greenfield Hall to set up for the Bazaar and package all our 'goodies'.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR *** Charlesanna Fallstick has again agreed to chair the Bake Booth. When you receive a call from her committee please agree to bake for us. She will also need help staffing the booth the day of the bazaar.

The Evening Group is having Ferris King look into the purchase of a new dehumidifier for the basement to help preserve the exhibits.

Evening Group Officers and Chairmen for 1984 - 1985 are:

Chairman	Deborah S. Mervine
Vice Chairman	Joanne Miller and Program
Secretary	Moirra Mattioni
Financial	Mary Carll
Secretary

Publicity Chairman-Fran Lunsford
Membership Chairman-Robin Spence

Deborah S. Mervine

EVENING IN HADDONFIELD

"Listen to Dr. Roger Moss, noted authority on painting the American home from 1820 - 1920, and visit Haddonfield's beautiful homes in this old community. Settled by English Quakers in the 17th Century, Haddonfield is a leader in preserving its historic heritage. A Box Supper will be served ....$35.00."

The above is the copy for the 1985 Philadelphia Open House Tour Brochure. The Historical Society of Haddonfield is sponsoring this tour and we will need everyone's support. If you help on the tour, you will be able to visit the beautiful homes and hear Dr. Moss too. Look for further details.

MEMBERSHIP

Statements for the renewal of membership in The Historical Society of Haddonfield for the year November 1984 to November 1985 have been mailed.

This past year a number of new members have joined the Society. However, because of moves, deaths and resignations the membership has decreased and our status quo is the same as the preceding year.

Let each of us accept the challenge of increasing the membership of the Historical Society by asking a friend or neighbor to join the Society. Tell them of our House Museum and Library with its irreplaceable and very valuable articles that have been acquired.

May we count on you so that it can be said in our Museum we "have the knowledge, let others light their candles at it"?

Membership Chairman
